That Hilltoppers Have Taken Lately Will Not Benefit Farrell, as Expected—New York Has No Use for a Losing Team.

PHEN the new law put the padlock on race-track betting everybody thought Farrell had fallen heir to a million dollars. According to the dope was in line for a small but that loss would be more then made up by the increased atce at the ball games. Farrell s owner of the Highlanders. "People have to go somewhere to amuse themselves." figured the sports, "and shall will get what racing loses." This might have been good reasoning at for the slump that the Hilltoppers the games is enough to undermine opularity of any New York base-club. Notice that I say "New L" There are towns that stick to a local team. But not New York! ng the biggest city in America, with Coney Island, a Central Park, an tum, a Statue of Liberty and an anthony Comstock, we naturally ex-pect nothing but the best to be served

Out beyond the Rockies he had cleaned, up all the best in his class. He went to Philadelphia to fight Tommy Murphy a New York six-round boy, and he got bumped hard. The game proceeded in a listless manner until the seventh inning, and Milligan had failed to show up at the bat. He was being saved until the bases were full of Poison Oaks. In the last half of that eventful inning his opportunity came. In a careless, unconcerned, yet confident, manner the peerless hitter approached the plate. He chuckled quietly as he strode along, tipping his hat in appreciation of the thind events applause. He had something up his sleeve.

DELMONT LOSES

PACING SITUATION

TO YOUNG PIERCE

TO YOUNG PIERCE

(Special to The Evening World.)

BOSTON, Mass., June 17.—Young Pierce, of Philadelphia, was given the decision over Al Delmont at the Armory A. A. last night, after twelve rounds of lively fighting. The decision was far from popular, as few could figure how a man nearly always on the defensive and giving more of an exhibition of waltzing than of boxing, could shade an opponent. Delmont started the work in every round but the sixth, which was all done by the Quaker and done hard and effectively on the Boston boy's body and face. Delmont played his left for the stomach with good effect, and several times pulled off a stiff right wallop to the jaw after feinting his left jab to the wind.

was made by Yale in 1888, and the best time of Harvard was 20.44 3-4 ten years earlier.

Harvard is admitted by the Yale experts to have the best crew this search of any in years. Some say the Crimson crew is fifteen searched. Harvard has also an advantage of five pounds average weight, and if the race shown in recent work, it will be bound to tell in the race.

The musually rough condition of the river this spring would not make it at all surprising if there was little change on the day of the race.

Time trials have very little credence among the old water men at this time, for the reason that it is too early to expect that either Coaches Kennedy or Wray would try to put them through their best paces, having been only a week on the water at New London. More reliable dope of this nature may be expected the coming week, when the crews are more nearly on edge for the race.
